Waiting...

Oh! Dear, what can the matter be?(3)
Johnny's so long at the fair.
He promised to bring me a basket of roses,
A garland of lilies, a garland of roses,
He promised to bring me a bunch of blue
ribbons,
To tie up my bonny brown hair.
Oh! Dear, what can the matter be?(3)
Johnny's so long at the fair.

Our Family

This is my mother, so sweet & nice
This is my father, who hugs me twice
This is my brother, so big and tall.
This is my sister, who's still quite small
This is the baby, so little you see
All different sizes, in our family.

Marhaba Camel

The Camel is so tall and humpy,
And many times he is very grumpy.
He munches on the thorny trees,
And doesn't care to wash his knees.

He hardly ever stops to drink,
He knows a very special way to blink.
He walks with his nose up in air,
But He'll take you anywhere.
Yes, when all is said and done,
On the desert Camel is No.1

Sing a song of six pence

Sing a song of six pence
A pocket full of rye;
Four and twenty blackbirds
Baked in a pie

When the pie was opened
The birds began to sing;
Wasn't that a dainty dish

To set before the king?

The king was in his counting house
Counting out his money;
The queen was in the parlour,
Eating bread and honey;
The maid was in the garden,
Hanging out the clothes;
When down came a blackbird
And pecked off her nose.

This Old Man

This old man, he played one,
He played knick-knack on my thumb
With a knick knock paddy whack
Give a dog a bone
This old man came rolling home.

This old man, he played two,
He played knick-knack on my
shoe,

(Repeat the last three lines of the first verse)

This old man, he played three,
He played knick-knack on my knee, (Repeat the last three lines of the first verse)

This old man, he played four,
He played knick-knack on my door,
(Repeat the last three lines of the first
verse)

This old man, he played five,
He played knick-knack on my hive,
(Repeat the last three lines of the first
verse)

The Little Plant

In the heart of a seed
Buried deep, Oh! So deep
A dear little plant
Lay fast asleep.

Wake, wake, said the sunlight.
And creep to the light.
Wake said the voice
Of the raindrops
bright

The little plant heard
And rose to see
Just how wonderful
The world might be.

Planting time

Dig, dig, dig the earth
Then you plant your seeds
A gentle rain and bright sunshine
Will help your flower grow.

The Lady with the Alligator Purse

I have a little brother, his name is Tiny Tim I put him in the bathtub, to see if he could swim.
He drank up all the water, he ate up all the soap,
He woke up in the morning, with a bubble
in his throat.

In came the doctor, in came the nurse,
In came the Lady with the alligator purse.

Measles said the doctor, mumps said the
nurse,

Chicken pox said the Lady with the alligator purse.

I don't want the doctor, I don't want the
nurse,
I don't want the Lady with the alligator
purse.

Out walked the doctor, out walked the
nurse,
Out walked the Lady with the alligator
purse.
